OPINIONS OF THE NEWSPAPER PRESS UPON THE PRESIDENT'S AMNESTY PROCLAMATION.

The proclamation by the President of general and unconditional amnesty to all participating in the late rebellion will be read with more than common interest. It is brief in its terms, and, like all the other State papers of the President, direct and perspicuous. * * * * *

It cannot be said that the President has acted hastily or inconsiderately in this important matter. Every step has been taken advisedly, and upon a full consideration of the condition of public sentiment, and the best interests of the country, its permanent honor, welfare and safety. His first act of amnesty, issued soon after the close of the war, pardoned by one act the masses of those lately in resistance to the federal authority, but all those prominent by office, wealth or influence were omitted for further and more special pardons, and by successive acts of amnesty, the number of those excluded from pardon was reduced to a comparatively few persons, until by the proclamation of the 4th of July last there were less than a hundred excluded, being those who were under indictment in the federal courts. This included Mr. Davis, General Lee, General Breckinridge and other prominent men of the Confederacy; but among the list thus still shut out from the benefits of the amnesty were not a few persons who were much less conspicuous than many of those whose pardons had already been granted, with the approval of the country. In this connection we may note the fact that both the great parties of the country are in a measure committed to approve this act of general amnesty by the President. The Democratic party, assembled in Convention at New York, planted itself on the broad ground of "amnesty for all political offences;" and the republicans, by failing to insist in their platform upon the application of the penal laws on the statute book against Mr. Davis and his associates, may be regarded as substantially yielding to the position assumed by many of their leading speakers and writers, namely, "universal suffrage and universal amnesty." * * * * *

Intelligent, sagacious, and eminently practical, the American people are to-day sincerely anxious for peace, harmony and a real restoration of the Union; they want not merely a territorial sovereignty, but a knitting together once more in fraternal harmony of the forces lately jarring and at war, destined, soon, we trust, to "march all one way." This yearning of the national heart is not to be put off with words or promises; it demands substantial positive acts. The proclamation to-day will be hailed as a real tangible step towards peace.

President Johnson's proclamation, in which he deliberately sets himself against the fourteenth constitutional amendment, and attempts to pardon the enemies of the government in the late rebellion, is the latest of the eleventh hour expedients.—There seems to be little opportunity or even disposition to punish these reckless men; but if anything could induce Congress to refuse to relieve them it is this constant effort of the President to defy the constitution and the laws and to set them free under his own proclamation. The question has been repeatedly settled that his pardoning power does not reach these cases; but he seems disposed to discard all authority, and to terminate his career in the Presidency by proving that his counsel in the beginning of it, that "traitors should be punished and be made to take a back seat," was utterly insincere and dishonest. Should Davis, Beauregard, Mason and others attempt to resume their rights under this proclamation a case will be made up of some interest. Congress will, no doubt, take early notice of it.

The President has issued a proclamation extending amnesty and pardon, without reservation, to all the participants in the late rebellion, and restoring, so far as executive proclamation can, all their forfeited rights and immunities. This proclamation will enable a number of distinguished exiles to return to the land they sought to rend in twain. Further than that it will accomplish little for good or evil.

[From the Washington Chronicle (Congress radical,) Dec. 25.]

We print elsewhere the latest proclamation of Andrew Johnson. This time he proclaims a universal amnesty, including in it even the chiefs of the rebellion. This much, at least, must be said for him in this connection—viz., that he shows a certain sense of poetic fitness in selecting Christmas Day for his proclamation of "peace on earth and good will to men." It will be recollected, that his last amnesty proclamation also appeared to have been issued with an eye to dramatic as well as political effect, the day selected being the Fourth of July and the day of assembling of the democratic nominating convention. As Davis was in a fair way to be released by the courts he will not have so very much for which to thank Mr. Johnson. In view of the latter's plebeian origin this circumstance will doubtless be pleasing to his aristocratic conceit.

President Johnson yesterday issued his expected amnesty proclamation extending pardon, unconditionally and without reservation, for the offence of treason to the United States and adhering to their enemies to all parties concerned in the late rebellion, with a restoration to all their rights, immunities and privileges under the Constitution and the laws. While the pardon puts an end to the Jeff Davis case and enables Breckinridge, Stidell, Mason, and others, now abroad, to return to the United States, it does not relieve either these or any other parties from the disabilities imposed by the fourteenth Constitutional amendment. It simply relieves them from prosecution for treason.

[From the New Haven Palladium, (Congress Radical), Dec. 25.]

Andrew Johnson, who began his Presidency by promising to hang Jeff Davis and his brother rebels, has issued a proclamation giving them complete amnesty. It is of course an inconsistency, but we do not care to find fault with it. None of the rebels would have been punished and none deign that they should. To be pardoned by Andrew Johnson is an additional ignominy.

[From the New Haven Journal (Congress Radical) Dec. 25.

This season of "peace, good will to men," President Johnson has seen proper to commemorate by issuing that proclamation of universal amnesty, published in another column. Full pardon is now extended to all who in any way or in any capacity aided the rebellion. The leading spirits, excluded by the terms of preceding proclamations—Breckinridge, Jacob Thompson, Mason and Slidell—now come within its terms, and on the strength of a new lease of life may return from their forced expatriation to fill the chairs of vacant college presidencies or concoct new schemes for national ruin. A ready delivery from the Jeff Davis dilemma is herein provided, and in putting an end to the trial farce the community will experience a grateful sense of relief.

[From the Baltimore Sun (Independent,) December 25.]

The President has finished up his pardons on account of the rebellion in a comprehensive and becoming amnesty proclamation, dated and issued to-day. The season for this exhibition of Executive clemency and good sense is well chosen to illustrate the benign influences of peace and good will toward men.

That the "prudential reservations and exceptions" made on past occasions "may now be wisely and justly relinquished," is a conviction shared with the President by all reasonable and truly patriotic men; by all who have breadth of mind and heart sufficient to recognize in the grand act now proclaimed a deed worthy of the magnanimity of a great and powerful nation. To restore to those citizens of a country who are held to have forfeited rights and privileges as such by reason of a great struggle growing out of a conflict of opinion upon fundamental principles may well be done at a time when the issues involved in that struggle are accepted as determined, and all are anxious again to abide under the one government organization—acknowledging one country and one flag only. In view of all the facts set forth, the President proclaims and declares, unconditionally, and without reservation, to all and every person who, directly or indirectly, participated in the late insurrection or rebellion, a full pardon and amnesty for the offence of treason against the United States, or adhering to their enemies during the late civil war, with restoration of all rights, privileges and immunities under the constitution and the laws which have been made in pursuance thereof. In all, the President has now put forth six proclamations of amnesty, and this one goes to the full measure of his constitutional power in the premises.

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMPLETE. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some way they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—Some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? so let them talk, puff and blow, but STOP. LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by

ASSETS OVER

CHRISTIAN W. BOUCK.....President.
ABRAM D. POLHEMUS.....Vice President.
WILLIAM M. COLE.....Secretary.
D. P. FACKLER.....Consulting Actuary.
DANIEL AYRES, M. D. LL.D., Med. Examiner.

POLICIES ISSUED AS GOOD AS UNITED STATES BONDS.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE AS AT DEATH!

The BROOKLYN LIFE is the only Company in the country which guaranties a definite surrender-value to every Policy on which two or more annual premiums have been paid; this amount, in dollars and cents, is endorsed on every Policy issued. Should any Policy-holder become unable to pay his premiums, he can thus know the cash worth of the Policy at any time after two annual premiums have been paid.

This certainly is the greatest inducement and most tangible advantage ever accorded to parties insuring their lives.

Among the advantages offered by the BROOKLYN, which thoroughly evince the determination of the officers to make it the MOST LIBERAL Life Insurance Company in the United States, are:

1st TOTAL REMOVAL OF ALL RESTRICTIONS ON TRAVEL AND RESIDENCE. The Assured may travel or reside anywhere they choose, the world over, without extra premium or special permit.

2d. A Loan of one-third of the Premium to the Policy-Holder Annually.

3d. All Policies are non-forfeitable after two full annual premiums have been paid,

4th. Rates as low as are consistent with financial soundness, and less than those of almost all Companies which accommodate their assured with loans.

5th. Dividends annually (after second year) in cash. Dividends are divided on the CONTRIBUTION PLAN—the only equitable manner of dividing the earnings of a Life Insurance Company. The Contribution Plan was first conceived by Mr. D. P. Fackler, now Actuary of this Company and has been adopted by most of the best managed Life Companies in this country.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid and now pays to its Policy-holders LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

6th. Promptitude in paying losses.

7th. No charge for policy or stamp.

The success which the "BROOKLYN" has achieved, fully exemplified in its rapid and healthful growth, is a convincing proof of the confidence reposed by the public in its soundness, integrity and liberality.

ÆTNA

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

HON. E. A. BULKELEY, President,
AUSTIN DUNHAM, Vice "
T. O. ENDERS, Secretary.
H. W. ST JOHN, Actuary.

SUMMARY OF BUSINESS FOR 1867

Total Assets, over	$10,000,000
Polices Insured in '67,	15,231
Am'nt Insured, nearly	$45,000,000
Policies Average "	3,000
Receipts for 1867,	5,129,447
Surplus for Dividends,	2,000,000

Dividend Fifty per cent.

Receipts for Interest Nearly Paid Its Losses.

It has $130 Assets for every $100 Liabilities.

Its premium receipts at the present time are nearly HALF A MILLION DOLLARS per month and are rapidly increasing.

The growth of the Ætna has never been equaled by any other Company whatsoever, in Europe or America.

Particular attention is called to the fact that while its business is increasing unprecedentedly, its ratio of expenses is comparatively small.

ECONOMY of management, CARE in the selection of risks, promptness in the payment of death claims, and security in the investment of its immense Trust Funds, are rigidly adhered to, and have ever characterized this Company.

The ÆTNA issued last year more Endowment Insurances than any other Company.

The ÆTNA'S ratio of expenses, or cost of new business is less than any other Company whatsoever, and less than two-thirds of the average.

The ÆTNA is as liberal in permits to travel, in all parts of the world, as a sound discretion will warrant, and is much more liberal than any other prominent Company.

ANNUAL INCOME over $6,000,000.

The only Company that has the Low Participating Non-forfeitable Term Insurance with privilege of renewal. Ex. of rate at age 30 $14 67, which is nearly 40 per cent. lower than any other leading Company. Also Non-forfeiting cash rates with dividends on contribution plan and payable at the end of the first year.

Description of Policies.

First—Whole Life Policies.

Second—Endowment Policies, for terms of ten fifteen, twenty, twenty-five, thirty, and thirty-five years.

AGES.

Insurance will be granted at all ages from fifteen to sixty years.

PREMIUMS.

Premiums are payable annually during the continuance of the insurance, or annually during a period of five, ten, fifteen, or twenty years within the insurance term, or by single payment.

DIVIDENDS.

All Whole Life and Endowment Policies, issued at the rates published herewith, will participate in the surplus from the date of issue,

The dividends will be declared and paid annually upon the contribution plan, and may be applied as the assured shall elect, either to reduce future premiums, or to increase the Cash Value of the Policy.

If no election be made the dividends will be added to the Cash Values.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may, at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a per centage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

The system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

Dividends on paid-up Policies—that is, Policies which require no further payment of premium to continue them in force for the original amount of insurance—will be paid in cash upon demand.

NON-FORFEITURE RULES.

No whole Life or Endowment Policy, on which two or more annual cash premiums have been paid, shall be forfeited by failure to make further payment as stipulated therein, but will continue in force for the full amount which the Cash Value and dividends, then accumulated, will purchase, taken as a single net premium, upon the "Actuaries" rate of mortality and four per cent. interest; and the amount continued in force will generally exceed the aggregate of the payments actually made, extra charges excepted.

A Most Wonderful and Successful Invention!

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC

CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

Awarded the highest Testimonial wherever Exhibited.

Rev. M. W. STAPLES, Inventor and Patentee.

THIS BOILER is self-acting, and dispenses entirely with labor and the wear of clothes. The hot suds and steam by the action of fire, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing it perfectly without any rubbing. It has been thoroughly tested, and pronounced unequalled as a Clothes Washer, by those who have used it.

All fabrics, from the finest laces to the bed-blanket can be washed perfectly and with ease and without the aid of the rubbing-board. For Flannels it is invaluable, as the rubbing rolling and pressing process must necessarily full them more or less.

It is truly a labor and clothes saving invention. Washing will no longer be a hardship, and washing day no longer a terror and a dread to housewives.

The invention can be used in any boiler, and the low price of the article places it within the reach of every family.

The saving in the wear of clothes will soon pay for the outlay.

It is estimated that 200 to 300 gallons of boiled suds pass through the clothes in thirty minutes; this being the longest time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes.

We are selling COUNTY RIGHTS rapidly.

RAILROADS.

TO SHIPPERS.

NORTH CAROLINA

ALL STATE

RAILWAY LINES, (THAT USED TO BE!)

WE inaugurated and are the Great Through Inland Air Line Route to all the Northern Markets, and have successfully worked the Line to the entire satisfaction of Shippers, North and south, for the last ten years, as the ten Thousand shippers in North and South Carolina will testify. We paid the State near Seven Hundred Thousand Dollars for her interest in this Road—thereby saving the people from Taxation for all time to come $60,000 per year; and we unhesitatingly declare that we can and will give more dispatch to all points, North and South, than any other Line.

NOTICE!

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 30, 1868.

DIGEST OF NEWS.

Thomas C. Moore, an old resident of Williamsburg, N. Y. lately deceased, has bequeathed $21,000 for the relief of suffering and destitute children of Southern soldiers, who died or were killed in the late war, in the Eastern portion of South Carolina, North Carolina and Georgia. The Trustees named for the execution of his bequest are James Hall, Francis J. Porcher, Louis Dessausure, E. Henry Frost and Rev. John Bamley.

The New York Citizen, (formerly edited by General Halpine) says, that it is a fact worthy of note that at the gathering of Union soldiers in Chicago not a negro soldier was present, nor any recognition of their services in the proceedings. This at a meeting where the Radical President-elect participated, and was the central figure, is significant.

The retrenchment promised the country by the Chicago platform has commenced at Washington by discharging from Government employment at the beginning of winter over a hundred female clerks, thereby saving a few thousand dollars; while it is probable that thousands of lazy hangers on to the Freedmen's Bureau will be continued in office at an expense of hundreds of thousands.

For pupoil! Eighty convicts in the New Jersey State prison refused to work unless an objectionable superintendent should be removed. They stuck to their ultimatum. The superintendent was removed, and the convicts resumed labor with three cheers.

Hon. Sambo Menard, the noble and intelligent African, one of the nation's wards, the man and brother, is still at Washington, waiting to take his seat in Congress. We learn that Dowcese of this district has not called upon him, the said Sambo. Even Colfax, Wade, Sumner, Sherman are partly on the other side. They are scheming to keep him out. Look out, Sambo!

There are now only two-and-a-half days' staging between the two ends of the Pacific Railway, and the construction is being continued.

Both hemispheres busily prepared for Christmas. Here, in the West, we got our Turkey; while, in the East, Europe is absorbed in the case of its Turkey. If our Turkey was fat, so much the better; the European Turkey is promising in this respect, as it seems likely to be well provided up with old porte, in a sort of general stew. In fine, it is a big thing all around. "Let us have peace."

The Baltimore American says the general amnesty doesn't relieve from the 14th amendment. How does it know? It seems to rejoice that the "rebels" are held bound in some manner, notwithstanding the general amnesty.

Probably the most contented postmaster in the world lives at Petropaulovsk in Kamschatka.—Only one regular mail is received there annually; sometimes the mail misses, as mails do everywhere, and then the postmaster has nothing to do for two whole years. This happy official enjoys a salary of three or four hundred roubles.

Wilson, the Hartford burglar, just sentenced to the Connecticut State prison, conducted his own defence at his recent trial, and had the assurance to address the State Attorney as "my learned brother."

The Woman's Rights Convention at Concord, N. H., was eminently successful, and showed that the friends of the movement have many sympathizers among the voters of the Granite State. Among the speakers was the notorious Mrs. Harper, colored, who claimed for the women of her own race the right of suffrage the same as the white women.

Mr. Davis is traveling in Wurtemburg.

The Mobile Register says that within the last thirty days cotton plantation acres have risen three hundred per cent. in value. The present crop will pay the planters all out of debt, and leave them such cash surpluses as they never rejoiced in in the old slave times.

THE AMNESTY PROCLAMATION.—On our first page, this morning, will be found a number of extracts from Northern journals, commenting variously upon the recent Proclamation of Universal Amnesty. It is received approvingly by all classes, save some rabid haters of the Southern people, who go so far as to threaten Mr. Johnson with impeachment, because of what they term his "impudence" in preventing their indulgence in vengeance. All enlightened persons admit, of course, that the proclamation releases Mr. Davis and all others, who were engaged in the "rebellion," from further accountability on the charge of treason. The Republicans claim that, under the fourteenth article of the Constitution, Mr. Davis and others are under disabilities and cannot be released therefrom except by a two-thirds vote of Congress, while it is urged, in other quarters, that, under the Constitution, the Amnesty Proclamation restores political offenders to all the rights, privileges, and immunities of citizens of the United States. It is to be hoped that a case may be made up for the Supreme Court of the United States, which will authoritatively settle the point.

LYNCH LAW IN ILLINOIS.—St. Louis, December 27.—On Saturday, near Jonesboro', Union county, Ill., three men on horses called at the house of Captain B. Franklin.—One of them wanted to trade for a valuable horse. Captain Franklin refused to trade, and the men rode off. In the afternoon one of them came back, took the Captain's horse and left his own. Captain Franklin followed and overtook the men, and demanded his horse, when the one having the horse fired three times, one ball hitting and killing the Captain almost instantly. The neighborhood was aroused, and pursued and arrested the men, and placed them under guard at the magistrate's. At night the house was surrounded by a company of armed men, who took the murderer and hanged him to a tree near by. The others proved to be only road acquaintances, and were released. Captain Franklin was much esteemed in this city.

THE UNIVERSITY.

While Davie and Moore are regarded as the founders of the University, Person, Smith and Girard are to be reckoned among its earliest benefactors. "Person" and "Girard" Halls are called in honor and remembrance of the first and last.

Among the most liberal patrons of the University, we reckon our much esteemed friend, the Hon. John H. Bryan, who graduated eight sons there; Judge Battle, who graduated five sons; and Gov. Graham, who graduated the same number.

With what integrity and discernment Professors were chosen to preside in each department, the characters of the lamented Dr. Mitchell and Dr. James Phillips afford the most ample proof.

Among her living Professors, who won public confidence by their ability and the assiduity with which they discharged the duties of their various stations, we might name Rev. William Hooper, D. Berniere Hooper, Manuel Fetter, Rev. Charles Phillips, F. M. Hubbard, Wm. H. Owen, and others.

The success of the University in preparing its graduates to fill the various stations in society, with honor to themselves and benefit to their country, is made manifest in the character and services of President Polk, Governor Manly, Judge Manly, Judge Mangum, John Y. Mason, Wm. A. Graham, John M. Morehead, Robert H. Morrison, Wm. H. Haywood, Wm. H. Battle, B. F. Moore, Thomas H. Wright, D. M. Barringer, Wm. Eaton, and a host of other brilliant and useful men, whose names space would fail us here to recount.

The first student at the University was Hinton James, of Wilmington, who arrived at Chapel Hill on Feb. 12th., 1795, and the College exercises began the next day, February 13th.

The first blow struck at the University came from W. W. Holden, who, with the high satisfaction, because of his political opinions, drove Professor Hedrick from the University and out of the State. Governor Graham, then Secretary of the Navy, procured a situation for the exiled Professor in the Patent Office Department, where he has been on active service ever since. When Holden struck this first blow, the University was in a most prosperous condition.—The number of Students reached upwards of 300.

The same man's second blow at the University was his signing the ordinance of secession. This, according to Holden, was the master blow. It felled the University, and negro soldiers now stand guard over it and trample it in the dust!

BIOGRAPHY THE BEST HISTORY.

The lives of public men, freely written, are truly said to be the best history of the times in which they move; and no more authentic account of any age, its transactions, the springs which impelled men's conduct, and the merits which different actors on its scenes possessed, can be obtained, than by studying the biography of the personages who mainly guided affairs, and examining the character which, by their influence, they impressed upon the times in which they flourished. Such knowledge, moreover, has this advantage, that, besides preserving the memory of past events and the likeness of men who have passed from the stage, it affords examples, or, as Senator Sweet would express it, "finger boards," pointing often to crimes which men may see, read of and avoid.

Marshall's Life of Washington is the best history of the Revolution. The Life of Napoleon is the history of France in its greatest era.

The lives and characters of Holden, Byron Laflin, the carpet-bag member from Pitt, J. W. Stevens, Senator from Caswell, John V. Sherard, Solicitor for the 3rd Circuit, Wm. M. Coleman, Attorney General, Judge Starbuck, District Attorney of the United States, Judge Jones, J. T. Deweese, fighting member of Congress, and "Hon." W. F. Henderson, of mule memory, would be the history of reconstruction in North Carolina.

If the Clerk of the Court of Washington county desires to aid in the historical research of Reconstruction, he will send us a copy of the presentment of the Grand Jury of Washington against Judge Jones; or, if the presentment ever ripened into a true bill, a copy of the bill.

The Clerk of Cabarrus county would aid in historical research, by sending a copy of the presentment or bill against "Attorney General" Coleman.

The Clerk of Johnston county can throw light on the history of Reconstruction, by sending us a copy of the trial and conviction of John V. Sherard for whipping a negro to death about the year 1862, for a theft of fowls.

Right here, in the archives of the Federal Court, can be found the presentment of the Grand Jury against Judge Starbuck for perjury—he being a member of the Secession Convention and yet swearing that he never gave aid, countenance or encouragement to the "rebellion."

In the same Court, we can find the presentment, made at its last term, (Judge Brooks presiding,) against our carpet-bag Congressman, J. T. Deweese.

And as to the "Hon." William F. Henderson, if the Clerk of Davidson will send us the copy of the indictment against this official, Director on the North Carolina Railroad and special friend of Governor Holden, it will throw great light on Reconstruction. And, by the by, Judge Cloud might enlighten us on this subject somewhat. When we last saw the Judge, he was looking through a pair of gold spectacles, said to be the property of old Mr. F. P. Blair, of the "Silver Spring," near the city of Washington. However that may be, the Judge was looking down upon the State Director of the North Carolina Railroad, aforesaid, with a friendly air, while he stood arraigned, at the bar of justice, for stealing Darr's mule.

We will not here name "Judge" Tourgee, whose life and character would illustrate reconstruction as fully as the life and character of Napoleon would illustrate the history of the French revolution. We don't omit the "Judge," because he is "Judge."—If Shocco Jones were living, he could add a second volume to his history of North Carolina, in the life and character of "Judge" Tourgee, as illustrated in the workings of reconstruction in North Carolina. We need not even here repeat that the "Hon." Wm F. Henderson called him a "jail bird, from the Penitentiary of Ohio," and we only omit him, for the present, as we expect to notice, in full, hereafter, his letter, which appeared in the Standard of yesterday.

If injustice has been done to any one of Gov. Holden's friends and co-workers in State and governmental affairs, they have only to inform us of it, and we will make all due correction and amends.

THE "TRADE" OF LOBBYING.

The Alexandria Gazette, one of the oldest journals in the country, which was born in better and purer days than these, comments upon the disposition which has been manifested, of late years, to manipulate the legislation of Congress by outside influences, and for purposes and through agencies not of the most legitimate character.—It very truly says that this thing has grown into a public scandal, and remarks:

"It is generally supposed that the trade of 'lobbying,' as it is called, practiced in Washington, is confined to adventurers not known to the public generally, and mere temporary hangers on at the hotels and boarding houses, and to frequenters of the rooms in the capitol. This is not the case. The most successful pliers of the occupation in question are characters of a different description. They are men who have been in public life, who were formerly, at some time or other, in Congress, or at the head of or connected with the departments and bureaus of the government. They thus, in the language of the lobby ring, 'know the ropes,' and can more successfully pursue their avocation. These men are paid by interested parties to get bills through Congress in any way possible. This includes the free use of money, or shares in the different enterprises projected—the various claims allowed and subsidies granted. The tariff bills are said to cost the persons concerned in having their business 'protected' immense sums of money. We have just seen that to get Alaska through costs an untold sum, and that the fee of one man was $26,000. These 'lobbyists' are required to be very diligent and consistent, and to fasten on to every 'susceptible' member of Congress. Lobbying is as much a trade in Washington as any other pursued. People abroad would be astonished to know how many are engaged in it, and how much money is made at it by successful persons. The corruption involved in the trade is incalculable."

This state of things is not peculiar to Congress. Unfortunately, as one of the results of Radical reconstruction, it has found its way into all of the Southern States. At each session of the Legislature of this State, those who carry on the "trade" of lobbying control its action on all measures involving appropriations of money, and the most successful managers are the carpet-bag interlopers who have squatted in our midst.—We hope soon to assist in smoking out some of them, whom we have in our eye at present.

OXFORD, Dec. 25, 1867.

Dear Sentinel:—You seem to feel such a lively interest in our Representatives, that I have thought that you, and (it might be) the State at large, would feel some interest in the constituency of such Representatives as John Ragland, Cuffee Mayo, Robert W. Lassiter and Charles Winstead.

John Ragland said that his colleagues should be "hung with a grape vine untrimmed,"—not only they, but every man who signed the Legislative address. Such a hanging would comprehend the Governor's son, the Lieutenant Governor, &c.—in all, 88 members of the Legislature. If John could carry out his will and hang them, what a crowd of admiring spectators he would have!

Mr. Lassiter's speech and vote of three millions of money for the Railroad have the same number of defenders that Cuffee Mayo's stealing the pistol has. His location of the Penitentiary is just as popular; and approved by the same voices. We greet Mr. Lassiter, as we do "Mr." Mayo, "well done, thou good and faithless servant!" though one's a Commoner and the other a Senator. Since the abolition of the freehold qualification for Senator, all distinction is a solished and before the law they are equal. In John Ragland's estimation they are equal, for he said both should "be hung."

In former days, our people on this holy day would greet their representatives in the persons of such men as Gilliam, Venable, Amis, Taylor, Littlejohn, Bullock, Lyon, Hargrove, Cannady, Eaton and Stone, &c. In still older times, they would greet and welcome such representatives as Thomas Person, John Penn, the signer of the great Declaration, Philemon Hawkins, William Snead, John Williams, and Judge Henderson, &c. Now, it is Ragland, Lassiter and Cuffee Mayo! "Oh, what a fall is here, my countrymen!"

After all, may it not be the fault of the minority in Granville, that we don't comprehend and understand, as the majority do, the real worth of our Representatives?

It is surmised here that Governor Holden will be the richest man in the State at the close of his administration. The location of the Penitentiary, the sale of 8 per cent. bonds at 65 cents in the dollar, which were at par when the Governor was inaugurated, will make somebody rich, and the State and the people poor.

Is it true that these bonds were never sold at less than 85 cents in the dollar, except by Gov. Holden's Treasurer? If one of Treasurer Jenkins' old slaves had sold his bonds at such a damaging rate, we believe the vigilant Treasurer would have hung him!

We greet you with a merry Christmas, and say, "Lay, on McDuff, and damned be he who first cries 'Hold, enough;'" for it will not be. GRANVILLE.

TOURGEE.—This "Judge" appears in the Standard of yesterday in a ridiculous letter, with reference to the late presentment of the Grand Jury of Orange. We will fully ventilate the "Judge" and his letter.

Assignee's Sale of Valuable Real Estate.

THE LAND BELONGING to Dr. M. T. Ponton will be offered at public sale, by his assignee in bankruptcy, on THURSDAY, the 14th of January next at 11 o'clock A. M.

The sale will take place at the residence of Dr. Ponton, the land will be put up, without reserve, to the highest bidder, for CASH, and no postponement will be made.

The land contains about sixteen hundred acres, is situated near the town of Halifax, N. C., on Great and Little Quankey Creeks and partly on the line of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad.

The soil is naturally free and fertile, but has been much reduced by bad tillage. There are large quantities of marl on some of the land, and all of it can be easily improved and made good Corn and Cotton land. Much of it is well adapted to truck farming, and nearly the whole of it is equal to any in America for the cultivation of the grape. To any person who desires to invest capital in "Grape Culture," no better opportunity can be offered.

The land will be sold in several separate tracts, in one of which there is the best mill site in Halifax county, affording an inexhaustible supply of water power, with building stone sufficient for the erection of dams and mills.

Dr. Ponton will take pleasure in guiding persons over the land, who may wish to inspect it with a view to purchase.

READ STATEMEMENT.

BY PERMISSION, I publish the following receipt and statement of settlement of Policy No. 81,927, for $5,000, on the life of Mrs. M. S. Hutchinson. The insurance had not been in force six months at the time of the decease of the insured.

		$5,142 00

"Received at Raleigh, N. C., Dec. 18th, 1868, of S. D. Wait, General Agent of the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company, five thousand one hundred and forty-two dollars, in full payment of Policy No. 81 927 and dividend and I hereby surrender all right title and interest in the same to said Company.

(signed) JOHN HUTCHINSON,
Of Newbern, N. C."

It will be seen by the above, although the party has been insured but six months, yet one-half the premium was cancelled by an anticipated dividend. In this staunch old Company, Policies are paid in full, deducting only the interest on notes from last payment until time of death of the assured.

This Company exercises great care in the selection of its risks, and although the Company has been represented in this State nearly two years, and has been doing an extensive business, the above is its first loss.

Teacher Wanted.

THE TRUSTEES of the GREENSBORO' HIGH SCHOOL wish to employ a well qualified Teacher to take immediate charge of the said Institution.

The building is a commodious brick edifice, well arranged to accommodate a large School, with suitable grounds attached, situate in a retired part of the town.

A gentleman of energy and industry, well qualified to teach the preparatory course in Latin, Greek and Mathematics, together with the common branches of a good English education, and one who intends to follow teaching as his sole occupation, will find an opening here for a large and profitable School. MISCELLANEOUS.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are of a truly marvellous character. Inveterate cases of Scrofula, where the system seemed utterly given up to corruption, have yielded to this compound of anti-strumous virtues. Disorders of a scrofulous type, and affections which are merely aggravated by the presence of scrofulous matter, have been radically cured in such numerous instances, in every settlement in the country, that the public do not need to be informed here that it is in most cases a specific and absolute remedy.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develops into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver. These facts make the occasional use of the Sarsaparilla as a preventive, advisable.

It is a mistake to suppose that so long as no eruptions or humors appear, there must be no scrofulous taint. These forms of derangement may never occur, and yet the vital forces of the body be so reduced by the subtle agency, as materially to impair the health and shorten the duration of life. It is a common error, also, that scrofula is strictly hereditary. It does, indeed, descend from parent to child, but is also engendered in persons born of pure blood. Low living, indigestion, foul air, licentious habits, uncleanliness, and the depressing vices generally, produce it. Weakly constitutions, where not fortified by the most constant and judicious care, are peculiarly liable to it. Even the robust, also, whose turbid blood swells the veins with an apparently exuberant vitality, are often contaminated, and on the road to its consequences. Indeed, no class or condition can depend on immunity from it, nor feel insensible to the importance of an effectual remedy.

In St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, for Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Ears and Eyes, and other eruptive or visible forms of the disease induced primarily by the scrofulous infection, the Sarsaparilla is so efficient as to be indispensable. And in the more concealed forms, as in Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and other afflictions of the nervous and nervous system, the Sarsaparilla, through its purifying power, removes the cause of the disorder and produces astonishing cures.

The sarsaparilla root of the tropics does not by itself relieve these results. It is aided by the extracts combined with it, of still greater power. So potent is this union of healing virtues, Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. Tetter-worm or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations, and Female Diseases in general, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by the invigorating and purifying effect of our Sarsaparilla. Prostration and General Debility, the accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, have their remedy also in this medicine. For Liver Complaints, torpidity, inflammation, abcess, etc., caused by rankling poisons in the blood, we unhesitatingly recommend the Sarsaparilla.

This medicine restores health and vigor where no specific disease can be distinguished. Its restorative power is soon felt by those who are Languid, Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and filled with Nervous Apprehensions, or who are troubled with any other of those affections symptomatic of weakness. Many, after taking it for General Debility, have written us of the youthful vigor imparted to their nervous system, which seemed lapsing into that prolific life they thought had departed on the advance of age. Others, whose fountains of life were always sterile, acknowledge their obligations to it for an obvious change.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies, it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in nowise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of medicine. Our people is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, either resident in, or migrating through, miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

MISCELLANEOUS.

To the People of the Southern States.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3, 1868.

When the pure medicinal restorative, now so widely known as Wolfe's Schoidam Schnapps, was introduced into the world under the endorsement of four thousand leading members of the medical profession some 20 years ago, its proprietor was well aware that it could not wholly escape the penalty attached to all new and useful preparations. He, therefore, endeavored to invest it with strongest possible safeguard against counterfeiters, and to render all attempts to pirate it difficult and dangerous. It was submitted to distinguished chemists for analysis, and pronounced by them the purest spirit ever manufactured. Its purity and properties having been thus ascertained, samples of the article were forwarded to ten thousand physicians, including all the leading practitioners in the United States, for purposes of experiment. A circular, requesting a trial of the preparation and a report of the result, accompanied each specimen. Four thousand of the most eminent medical men in the Union promptly responded. Their opinions of the article were unanimously favorable. Such a preparation, they said, had long been wanted by the profession, as no reliance could be placed on the ordinary liquors of commerce, all of which were more or less adulterated, and therefore unfit for medical purposes. The peculiar excellence and strength of the oil of juniper, which formed one of the principal ingredients of the Schnapps, together with an unalloyed character of the alcoholic element, give it, in the estimation of the faculty, a marked superiority over every other diffusive stimulant as a diuretic tonic and restorative.

These satisfactory credentials from professional men of the highest rank were published in a condensed form, and enclosed with each bottle of the Schnapps, as one of the guarantees of its genuineness. Other precautions against fraud were also adopted; a patent was obtained for the article, the label was copyrighted, a fac simile of the proprietor's autograph signature was attached to each label and cover, his name and that of the preparation were enclosed on the label, and the corks were sealed with a private seal. No article had ever been sold in this country under the name of schnapps prior to the introduction of Wolfe's Schiedam schnapps, in 1851; and the label was deposited, as his trade mark, in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York during that year.

It might be supposed by persons unacquainted with the daring character of the parties who prey upon the reputation of honest merchants by vending deleterious trash under their name, that the protections so carefully thrown around these scraps would have prevented the introduction and sale of counterfeits. They seem, however only to have stimulated the rapacity of impostors. The trade mark of the proprietor has been stolen;

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 30, 1868.

THE "SENTINEL."

We will send out, in a few days, to many of our friends, our Prospectus for 1869, hoping that they will make an effort to swell our subscription list. We take it that any one of our present subscribers could, any day, by speaking to his neighbors, add two new names to our list.

We thank our friend G., of Graham, for sending us twenty; our friend W., of Orange, for twenty two; and our friend Y., of Granville, for eighteen. Of the sixty thus sent, many would have delayed or omitted to subscribe, if they had not been directly spoken to by one of our friends.—We are aware of the scarcity of money, yet there are but few who cannot raise sufficient to pay for a paper for six months.

The Sentinel has no Federal or State patronage to sustain it. No Wall Street brokers own it; no party or "ring" controls it, no Howard amendment bars it; justice and truth only shall ban it, while the people, who hate fraud, peculation, oppression, villainy and corruption shall be called on to uphold it!

The excellent Male school of the Rev. Dr. R. S. Mason and Mr. S. G. Ryan will re-commence on the 15th. proximo.

Mackerel, Buckwheat, Family Flour, Cod Fish, Butter, Soap, Molasses, Syrups, and other articles: Douglas Bell, Fayetteville Street.

Law School in Raleigh, to commence January 18th: Hon. William H. Battle, assisted, occasionally, by his sons, Messrs. K. P. and R. H. Battle.

The 52nd session of S. W. Hughes' Academy, near Hillsboro, commences on the second Monday of January. Our old friend and neighbor is one of the most successful Instructors of youth in the State.

Candidate for Commissioner in the Eastern Ward: J. J. Overby.

BUCKET COMPANY.—There will be a meeting of this Company, at the Mayor's office, to-morrow evening. A full attendance is requested, as an election of officers will be had for the next six months.—Young men, from 18 to 20 years of age, wishing to join, will have an opportunity of doing so.

LAW SCHOOL.—It will be seen, by the announcement in another column, that the Hon. Wm. H. Battle proposes to revive his Law School, and that the next term will commence, in this city, on the 18th. proximo. He will be occasionally assisted by his sons and partners, Messrs. K. P. and R. H. Battle. No jurist in the country is more eminently qualified than Judge Battle to impart instruction in the law, and we commend, most heartily, his proposed school to young gentlemen who contemplate adopting the legal profession. Board, we are sure, can be obtained in Raleigh, at private houses, on very reasonable terms, and students will have the advantage here of attending the terms of, and hearing the arguments in, the Supreme and Federal Courts.

HANDSOME CAKES.—It was a treat even to look through the windows of the establishment of Messrs. Bradley & Christophers, on Fayetteville Street, and see the magnificently ornamented cakes which they had gotten up, to order, to help along the Xmas cheer. In point of cuisine and of elegant ornamentation they reflected the highest credit upon Mr. Wm. Simpson, the Baker and Confectioner. Through Messrs. Bradley & Christophers, or otherwise, Mr. Simpson will fill all orders for weddings, parties, &c., on reasonable terms and in the most elegant style.

F. or T.—There will be a called meeting of Oak City Council, F. of T., at the Mayor's Office, to-morrow evening, (Thursday,) at the usual hour.

COLLARDS.—Whilson congregated quite a crowd of negroes in front of the Court House, on Monday afternoon, to whom he detailed, in piteous terms, the insults, grievances and maltreatment to which he has been subjected at the hands of the few white Radicals in the city and a small squad of ambitious darkeys. His tale evidently excited the commiseration of his hearers, if we may judge by the profuse exhibitions of excited declamation on the part of numbers of his colored friends. Is Collards still in the ring? That's the question. Or has he allowed others to will his coming honors and consented to permit the prospective perquisites to be pulled away from him?

THE MUNICIPAL ELECTION.—There is almost a certainty that, in at least two of the Wards of the City, the friends of good government and decency and order can secure the election of proper Commissioners. In the other Ward (the Western) the prospect is by no means hopeless, if those who are interested will exert themselves energetically. Very worthy gentlemen have announced themselves in the various Wards, and there has been no disposition or effort, except on the part of a few petty Radical schemers and mischief-makers, to give a party phase to the contest. Let all such be rebuked, and let all our citizens, white and black, who wish a good and safe administration of our municipal affairs, and who wish to do an act of justice, support Mr. Haywood for Mayor and unite upon some of the very fit gentlemen who are announced as candidates for Commissioners. The party candidates, whose names are published, do not merit the support of the people, for the reason that, without canvassing other considerations, party is not a fit element in this election.

THE ISSUE BETWEEN CONGRESS AND GEN. GRANT.—"Coming events cast their shadows before," and a great and dark shadow is being projected over every interest in the land by the looming up in Congress of a determination not to remove from the Executive of the country the shackles which, in a moment of party hatred and fear, the radical majority were enabled to impose upon the President. When the Tenure of Office bill was passed the pretext was that it was necessary to control the occupant of the chair, and no means or arguments were used to assist its passage except such as were exclusively personal to President Johnson. No man who advocated the measure, in or out of Congress, dared to proclaim an intention to disturb the harmony of the powers of government, as adjusted in the constitution, and which, from the first moment of our national existence, has contributed so greatly to our national growth and greatness. Had such an intention been avowed by the framers of that bill it would have been received everywhere with a burst of popular indignation and scorn, and President Johnson would have become a martyr instead of a reproach in the public esteem.

To-day the position is changed. A man endowed in the highest degree with the confidence of his fellow citizens is about to assume the Executive authority, which they have conferred upon him in the hope that his wisdom will bring back the glad sunlight of peace to the land and his integrity restore simplicity and honesty to the overgrown and corrupt branches of government. Across the field of this fair hope a dark shadow portends, and the disposition of Congress to bestow distrust where the people have conferred confidence is its cause. One-third of the last session of the present Congress has already expired, and from what has therein passed we may know the spirit that animates the body and what will be its course in the remaining eight weeks it has to sit, unless some great power forces it to depart from its intended course.

As at present limited by the legislation of Congress the Presidential office and power which Gen. Grant will assume on the 4th of March next will be utterly useless for good in the path where most is expected of him. Not only can he not control the policy of his government in affairs of State, but he cannot appoint his Cabinet council nor remove the head of a subordinate bureau, nor even kick out of office any corrupt inspector who may be in league with the whiskey ring. The degradation of the Presidential office to a mere nullity is destructive to our form of government and will be ruinous to national and private interests. It is incumbent on Congress at the earliest possible moment to restore to the Presidency the powers which the constitution conferred upon it. In the person of Gen. Grant there is not the slightest shadow of a reason for continuing the distrust which has been heaped on President Johnson, and a refusal or neglect to repeal the Tenure of Office bill will simply amount to a determination on the part of Congress to deprive him of the power to do good which the people have appointed him to do.

Should Congress fail to do this necessary and just act there will be but one course left for Gen. Grant to pursue. On taking the chair he must appoint to positions in his Cabinet men whom he knows and whom he can trust to agree with him in any great question that may arise. And should any not agree with him let him displace them at once and trust the people to sustain him. The constitution, it is true, makes the Secretaries of the departments the advisers of the President; but they are his subordinate officers, not his masters, and any other interpretation of our plan of government is simply to impose confusion, contention and impotency upon the head of the State. At a time like this, when every branch of the administration requires to be purged of the foulest corruption and jobbery, and when we have elected to office the man of our choice to do this work, it would be folly or madness, or something worse than either, to tie his hands with the present Tenure of Office law. On Congress rests the onus of the act. They are called upon to move before Gen. Grant assumes the office, and if they refuse or fail to do so there can be but one deduction as to the reason for their course—they either distrust Gen. Grant, or they are determined that he shall not have power to purge the government of its manifold corruptions and wickedness.—N. Y. Herald.

[The views of the Herald as to the infamous Civil Tenure Act are as proper as its slavish eulogiums of Grant are disgusting. It will strike the public with no favorable impression of Gen. Grant, however, that he should demand, for himself, the repeal of this Act, which he was understood to have been greatly instrumental in fastening upon President Johnson and his administration. Still we trust that he will persist in his demand and that the disgraceful enactment may be swept from the Statute books,—to be followed by other and similar Jacobin enormities and usurpations.]

From the Savannah Republican, Dec. 22.

NEGRO LAWLESSNESS IN GEORGIA.

On Friday last Charles E. Ross and Archibald Griffin appeared before Justice P. M. Russell, Jr., and made affidavit in substance that their lives are continually threatened by an armed organized body of lawless negroes on Skidaway Island, and that they are denied, under penalty of death, the right to fish or oyster in the Thunderbolt river, and that on the 16th inst., when they were on their way to Little Tybee creek, fourteen miles below Thunderbolt, and to reach which point they were necessarily compelled to pass Skidaway Island, and, when immediately opposite to the Confederate batteries, a heavy and sharp fire was opened upon them by a very large body of negroes, and that they are thus prevented from pursuing their vocation of fishermen and oystermen. The affidavit, we understand, was handed to Sheriff Dooner on Saturday last.

On yesterday morning two colored men, named Harvey Miller and Benjamin Rivers, appeared before the same justice and made oath that on the 17th inst., when opposite Turner's Rock, on their way to Little Tybee creek, they were fired upon by an armed body of negroes. The shot fell around them thick and fast. The negroes ordered them to stop, when their boat was boarded by four armed negroes, who compelled them to go ashore with them, where they saw about twenty negroes armed with muskets, rifles, &c. After making numerous inquiries in reference to the late arrests on Whitemarsh Island they were released and allowed to proceed to Little Tybee creek.—The Justice issued no warrants, because the affiants could not give the names of the parties, but the affidavit was handed to Sheriff Dooner.

Ross and Griffin testify that the armed bodies of negroes on Skidaway island have declared their purpose to be to kill and murder every white man who shall attempt to pursue his vocation of fishing and oystering in the waters below Thunderbolt, and it would appear from the affidavit of Miller and Rivers, the colored men, that they were fired upon and arrested for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not they were implicated in any way in procuring the late arrests near Turner's Rock.

These affidavits show that there are organized and armed bodies of negroes located on the river below Thunderbolt, whose object is to resist the laws and to prevent all white men, and such colored men as are not willing to engage in a crusade against white men, from pursuing the occupation of fishing and oystering in those waters.—Now that this fact is established beyond a reasonable doubt, it certainly is the duty of the civil authorities to adopt prompt and efficient measures to abate the nuisance.

[From the Cincinnati Gazette (Radical,) December 24.]

GENERAL GRANT AND PLUNDER SCHEMES.

Grant, during his late trip from Chicago to this city, remarked to a gentleman in company that he feared the "carpet-baggers" would swamp the government before he could take possession of the White House. By carpet-baggers, he meant the large congregation of individuals now at Washington with their pockets full of schemes, the object of which is to deplete the treasury. General Grant spoke very freely on this subject. He did not hesitate to denounce the business as public robbery and the schemers as public robbers. "I am not in favor, sir," said Grant, "of directly or indirectly increasing the public debt while there is a party in the country that talks about repudiation. Furthermore, it is also purely necessary that we should have the strictest honesty in the collection of the revenue and the strictest economy in all expenditures." This is Grant's platform. He makes no secret of it. The plunderers know it. They have been to see the President elect. Pending the session of Congress they asked him, with reference to some of their gigantic railroad schemes, if he could not favor them to remain neutral. In reply, he said he would use his influence to defeat all plunder schemes. He will keep his promise. He will, furthermore, mark the plunderers, whether in the lobby or in Congress. Now if the public desire some particulars of the schemes General Grant referred to, or desire to get a glimpse of the plans cut out for the winter by the Congressional lobby, we refer them to the Washington Letter printed in this paper. In all these schemes Congressmen are of course interested. Let the people keep an eye on Congressional movements and they will soon be able to spot the rascals. You need not keep your eye exclusively on the democratic side. In plunder schemes political lines are not drawn. The corruptionists hunt in couples. Let us, if possible, bring a public sentiment to bear that will keep hands out of the Treasury until Grant gets into power. Then the Treasury will be safe.

THAT MILLION OF DOLLARS AT MOBILE.—The Treasury agent who telegraphed to Mr. McCulloch that he was on the trail of a million of dollars is, says the Mobile Register, William Jones, who will be well remembered as an individual residing in Mobile, who eloped to the Federal lines and afterwards piloted Commodore Farragut's fleet into Mobile bay. Not content with that exploit, he has consented to give us the benefit of his valuable citizenship again, and has been spending his time in seeing how he can make a little black-mail money, and at the same time celebrate his "loalty" by nosing out something to the injury of some of his fellow citizens. This spy has taken into his head that there is a million of dollars in gold in one of the Mobile banks which was Confederate money—therefore is Federal money. We heard of his capers some days ago, and how he had set a watch on these respectable banks, and was trying to rope some decent people into his "loal" speculations. If the telegraph is to be believed, he has imposed on the Secretary of the Treasury. If the latter officer is very gullible, Mr. Jones will lead him into a ridiculous snarl. As for the gold million, it is all in Mr. Jones's eyes. Considering the antecedents of this enterprising citizen, we would suppose that his proper role here would be to "let us have peace." Shadiness suits his case. They do say he is aiming to be General Grant's collector of the port of Mobile—an appointment eminently "fit to be made," seeing that he does not know how to write a readable letter.

THE FORTY-FIRST CONGRESS.—There is now very little doubt that the Forty-first Congress will meet on the 4th. of March, and remain in session for some time for the transaction of legislative business. The question of the repeal of the law providing for the meeting on that day has been considered by several of the leading Senators and Representatives, and there was a general concurrence in opinion that its repeal would be advisable. But it is now understood on high authority that it is deemed expedient that there should be a session of one or two months to aid the incoming Administration in carrying out certain important public measures which may be proposed.—Washington Correspondence New York Times.

RESULT OF THE AMNESTY PROCLAMATION.—It is known that the result of the amnesty proclamation will be in one direction the return of Mr. John C. Breckinridge to Kentucky. That gentleman, however, had intended next summer a return which it is now understood will take place in March. He will, it is stated, remain entirely in private life.—Wash. Cor. Herald

EFFECT OF THE AMNESTY PROCLAMATION UPON CONGRESS.—It is not unlikely that Congressional notice of a critical character will be taken immediately upon the expiration of the recess in reference to the amnesty proclamation of President Johnson printed in dispatches yesterday. The President, by simply issuing the proclamation in general terms, has left its construction an open question. That the substantial pardon accorded will be respected by the judicial and executive branches of the government is conceded; indeed, the Chief-Justice, when the intention to issue the proclamation was broached, publicly expressed his satisfaction by saying that it would insure from molestation men whom fear of legal action had kept out of the South and whose enforced absence was a bad commentary and a practical check upon the material interests and real settlement of that section. But the question to be raised in Congress upon the document will be its relation to the restraining clause of the fourteenth amendment. Senator Sumner professes to see in the proclamation an intention to dispense with the burdens imposed upon participants in the rebellion by that amendment, which he claims can only be lifted by a two-thirds vote of Congress. To this end he intends pressing to a passage Senator Stewart's bill making it a felony, heavily punishable, for those ineligible under the amendment to take office. On the contrary, Senator Ferry intends making this action of the executive department the plea for the legislative department to equal it in magnanimity and formally remove all disabilities whatsoever.

Prominent Southern men here hope no good not expect evil from the President's action. They regard the document as too late to be a favor, and say that the Congress has so walled up the path to harmony and so handled all other branches of the government as to render merely complimentary the proclamation which had it been early had been effective.—*Wash. SOUTHERN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

PURELY A SOUTHERN INSTITUTION.

PRINCIPAL OFFICES:

Atlanta, Georgia; Memphis, Tennessee; Louisville, Kentucky.

CAPITAL STOCK, $228,500.

Insures lives, and promptly adjusts and pays losses. Its principal business is with Southern States, and to them it appeals for patronage. It has ample means to fully protect Policy holders and pay all losses.

The "Southern" combines the advantage of both note and cash system, stock and mutual—such as choose to pay cash may do so and secure a non-forfeitable policy and all the advantages of a Cash Company. The privilege of a permanent loan for one-third is granted to all who desire it.

It makes investments at home in good and reliable securities, thereby tending to make money more plenty in our midst, and to aid in developing the resources of our section and to stop the annual drain of over Six Million dollars, which are being sent North for Life Insurance.

Its profits are equitably distributed among Policy holders and Stockholders.

In its organization are presented men of experience in Life Insurance and their aim will be to make the "Southern Life" the exponent of the business, enterprise and progress of the present day.

LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY,

OF

THE rapid advancement of "THE EQUITABLE," to the very front rank of American Life Insurance Companies, the unprecedented amount of its new business for the year ending September 30th, 1868, being over the large accumulation by it of EIGHT MILLIONS OF DOLLARS, together with an annual income of FIVE MILLIONS OF DOLLARS, afford the very best evidences of its popularity, success and reliability.

A brief comparison of the Society's business for the first nine years of its organization, will best illustrate its remarkable progress.

THE DECLINING YEAR.

The year begins to tremble with decay,
Like an old man who leans upon a staff,
And in a graveyard reads the epitaph
Of all his offspring who have passed away;
But yet soft breezes with his thin locks play,
Scattering his sadness with a jocund laugh,
While the great sun yet warms in his behalf,
And with his darts keeps Winter still at bay.
Yes, soothed and flattered in full many ways,
Though all the fields be bare, and woodlands sere,
Half hidden from his sight by thickening haze,
Serenely smiles the slow declining Year.
Like one who has in goodness spent his days,
And waits his coming end without a fear.

ECLIPSES OF THE SUN AND MOON.—There will be four eclipses the coming year—three of the Sun and one of the Moon, as follows:

First—Partial eclipse of the Moon, January 27th: beginning 7h. 8m. 30s., in the evening.

Second—Annual eclipse of the Sun, February 11th, at 8h. 34m., in the morning.

Third—Partial eclipse of the Sun, July 23d, at 8h. 34m., in the morning.

Fourth—Total eclipse of the Sun, August 7th, at 4h. 6 p. m., evening.

This will be the largest eclipse of the Sun that will happen in this country until the last year of the century.

"My son," said the veteran at the foot of the stairs, "arise, and see the newly-risen luminary of day, and hear the sweet birds singing their matin song of praise to their great Creator; come while the dew is on the grass and tender lambs are bleating on the hill side—come, I say or I'll be up there with a switch and give you the cussedest licking that you ever had!"

So long as children, whether young men or maidens, ever come with unhesitating confidence to their parents, and tell them all their troubles and temptations, the parents can keep them under a guiding and controlling hand; but as soon as they begin to conceal their offences, and especially their temptations, from their parents, the devil gets the inside track and is pretty sure to win the race.—Oliver Dyer.

An indignant orator at a recent political meeting, in refusing an opponent, thundered: "Mr. Chairman, I scorn the allegation, and I defy the alligator."

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational, material and political.

THE LATEST NEWS

From every quarter, both by mail and telegraph, will be carefully collated and presented.

Full and correct market and financial reports will be given.

And, in one word, no effort will be spared to make the SENTINEL, in all respects, a reliable

Is the recognized leader of the Retail Clothing Trade in Raleigh.

Strangers in the City will find it to their advantage to call in and get a

WINTER OUTFIT.

Here is the STYLE;

He sells for CASH; therefore, high prices are not essential to success. The man who pays his money at this House contributes nothing towards paying bad debts made by others who "never mind the price."

Great pains taken in fitting the customer, and polite attention shown under all circumstances.

AN ACT

SECTION 1. That as this act will be incorporated in the general act respecting the practice and procedure of the Courts, required to be reported to the General Assembly at its present session, by the commissioners appointed for that purpose, it will be printed in the general act and not elsewhere among the acts of this General Assembly, unless otherwise hereafter directed.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of State is required to have the third section of this act, and that portion relating to the Superior Court Clerks, printed at least weekly in four papers published in this state, and the sum necessary for that purpose is hereby appropriated from any monies in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

SEC. 3. The terms of the several Superior Courts of this State shall begin in each year at the times hereinafter stated, and shall continue to be held for two weeks (Sundays and legal holidays excepted,) unless the business shall be sooner disposed of.
